

"Queen Katarina" - art workshop with art gallery

In the art workshop the children and volunteers create figures and make decorating arrangements of flowers or other materials under the guidance of professional and skilled personnel. They are taught and skilled in different art techniques. These self-made products are being offered for sale in the gallery. Artistic work enables the children to search and create, making the world more beautiful and creating a more positive image of themselves at the same time.